

ESSENTIAL
COMPONENTS
TO FORM A NEW WORSHIPING
COMMUNITY

Assessment

Vera.White@pcusa.org

Apprenticeships and Residencies

Sara.Hayden@pcusa.org

Coaching

Shannon.Kiser@pcusa.org

Training

Sean.Chow@pcusa.org

Funding

Jon.Moore@pcusa.org

Tim.McCallister@pcusa.org

The process of discerning, starting, growing, and multiplying new worshiping communities is nonlinear.

Request services from the 1001 team at OneThousandOne.org

Action steps for presbyteries, churches, and emerging leaders to form new worshiping communities

1001
WORSHIPING COMMUNITIES
OneThousandOne.org

DISCERNING

EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITY OF BECOMING A NWC LEADER

Attend Discerning
Missional Leadership
Assessment

Gather a discernment team

Meet with a presbytery
committee

Become an apprentice

Attend

- 1001 intro event
- Neighborhood listening event
- 1001 national conference
- Training event

Consult with coach

Consider funding options

Action steps marked with an icon are offered by the 1001 team. See OneThousandOne.org. Items without icons can be completed with the help of your team, presbytery, or coach.

STARTING

THE BEGINNING STAGES
OF A NEW WORSHIPPING
COMMUNITY

Gather core
leadership team

Use Starting New Worshipping Communities
resource

Consult on funding
strategy; cultivate initial
donors

Apply for seed and health insurance grants

Contract with coach

Attend a neighborhood
listening event

Attend 1001 national conference

Participate in a cohort

Develop congregational and
mid council partnerships

GROWING

MATURING AS A WORSHIPPING COMMUNITY

Continue using *Starting
New Worshipping
Communities* resource

Implement funding
strategy; broaden donor
base

Attend 1001 national
conference

Contract with coach

Apply for investment and growth grants

Nurture partnerships
with congregations and
mid councils

Participate in a cohort

Identify, train, and deploy
new leaders

Consider becoming an organized congregation
with your presbytery's help

MULTIPLYING

REPRODUCING NEW
WORSHIPPING COMMUNITIES

Form a new leadership team using Starting New Worshipping Communities
resource

Conduct a neighborhood
listening event

Become a coach

Lead a cohort

Sponsor new leaders
attending Discerning Missional Leadership
Assessment

Sponsor an apprenticeship
or residency

Sponsor training events

Meet with a presbytery
committee

Invite donors to support a new community