

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH U.S.A.

FUNDING SOURCES

(The following organizations should be contacted directly for more information regarding their funding standards.)

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.):

Creative Ministries of Presbyterian Women

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
100 Witherspoon Street
Louisville, KY 40202-1396
(502) 569-5387

Funds projects which meet a crucial need for persons who are hurting, or which are judged to be of critical importance in accord with current priorities of the Presbyterian Church.

Presbyterian Hunger Program

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
100 Witherspoon Street
Louisville, KY 40201-1396
(502) 569-5832

Provides funds for hunger related projects in five areas: 1) food relief 2) development assistance, 3) education and interpretation, 4) lifestyle modification, and 5) influencing public policy related to hunger issues.

Presbyterian Disaster Assistance

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
100 Witherspoon Street
Louisville, KY 40202-1396
(502) 569-5806

Provides support grants in three areas of ministry: disaster preparation and response (including environmentally related crisis), refugee resettlement and asylum ministries, and community development (including church-based community organizing and affordable housing ministries). Priority is given to ministries showing connection to ecumenical and/or local church bodies.

A Territory Resource (ATR)

603 Stewart, Suite 221
Seattle, WA 98101
(206) 624-4048
(206) 382-2640 fax
www.atrfoundation.org

The purpose of ATR is to support activist community organizations which work to create a more equitable, just, and environmentally sound society

Appalachian Community Fund

107 W. Main Street
Knoxville, TN 37902
(865) 523-5783
(865) 523-1896 fax
www.appalachiancommunityfund.org

Supports social change activism in central Appalachia. Defines social change as working to redistribute wealth, power and resources, and to eliminate the barriers that keep people from participating fully in society. Social change also means focusing efforts on changing the circumstances and the social and institutional systems that create barriers and inequities.

Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation

2920 Reynolda Rd.
Winston Salem, NC 27106
(336) 748-9222

Provides funds to programs in the Southeast which builds communities that nurture people, spur enterprise, bridge differences, and acts with fairness and civility.

Ben & Jerry's Foundation

P.O. Box 299
Waterbury, VT 05676
(802) 244-6957

Ben & Jerry offers competitive grants to not-for-profit organizations which facilitate progressive social change. The Foundation supports projects which are: models for social change; infused with a spirit of generosity and hopefulness; directed towards enhancing people's quality of life and examples of creative problem solving

Better Homes Foundation

189 Wells Ave.
Newton, MA 02159
(617) 964-3834

Grants made are to assist homeless families with transitional and permanent housing, job training and jobs, medical care and counseling, and childcare.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

United States Catholic Conference
3211 4th Street, NE
Washington, DC 20017
(202) 541-3000

Funds organized groups of low-income people attempting to gain economic strength and political power in their communities.

Chinook Fund

2418 W. 32nd Avenue
Denver, CO 80211
(303) 455-6905
(303) 477-1617 fax

The Chinook Fund is dedicated to creating a just and equitable society by building a permanent institutional and financial base for progressive social change. With funds raised annually, they provide grants, technical assistance, and avenues for networking to grassroots community organizations in Colorado.

Church Women United

475 Riverside Dr #1626A
New York, NY 10015
(212) 870-2347
(212) 870-2338 fax

Contributes financially to self-development projects for women throughout the world.

The Edna McConnell Clark Foundation

415 Madison Ave. 10th Floor
New York, NY 10017
(212) 551-9100

The basic goal is to improve conditions for persons who are poorly or unfairly served by the established institutions of society.

Environmental Support Center

1500 Massachusetts Ave., NW Suite # 25
Washington, DC 20005
(202) 331-9700
(202) 331-8592 fax
www.envsc.org

The Environmental Support Center (ESC) promotes the quality of the natural environment, human health and community sustainability by increasing the organizational effectiveness of regional, state and local organizations working on environmental issues and for environmental justice. This mission is accomplished through three programs, and ESC's constituencies consist of environmental justice and environmental activist organization.

Fund for Southern Communities

315 W. Ponce De Leon Ave., Suite # 1061
Decatur, GA 30030
(404) 371-8404
(404) 371-8496
www.fundforsouth.org

Supports small community groups working for social justice and community organizing. We support groups in Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina.

Jewish Fund for Justice

260 Fifth Avenue, Suite # 701
New York City, NY 10001
(212) 213-2113
(212) 213-2233 fax

Makes grants to projects that are working to combat poverty and the systemic disenfranchisement of low-income people in the United States.

Albert A. List Foundation, Inc.

998 Fifth Avenue
New York, NY 10028-0126
(212) 327-4971

Grants are awarded to committed groups that foster citizen participation in the democratic process, further an understanding of the artist and art with society, and groups working for social change. Groups should be exempted from the federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

MacArthur Foundation

140 S. Dearborn #1100
Chicago, IL 60603
(312) 726-8000
(312) 917-0334 fax

Grants with the highest priority go to action oriented, locally initiated projects in the areas of Community Initiatives, Education, Health, Population, World Environment and Resources, and Peace and International Cooperation.

Minority Group Self Determination Fund

United Methodist Church
110 Maryland Avenue, NE #38
Washington, DC 20002-5680
(202) 547-4828

The purpose of this fund is to provide assistance to ethnic minority United Methodist Churches and to community organizations for projects which they have determined to be important to the development of their communities.

Ms. Foundation

141 5th Ave., 65
New York, NY 10010
(212) 689-3475

Provides support to self-help projects for women and girls which enables them to govern their lives and influence the world around them.

Charles Stewart Mott Foundation

1200 Mott Foundation Bldg.
Flint, MI 48502-1851
(810) 238-5651
(810) 766-1753 fax
www.mott.org

Grantmaking is organized in four programs: Civil Society, Environment, Poverty and Flint, Michigan.

Needmor Fund

42 S. St. Clair Street
Toledo, OH 43602
(419) 255-5560

The primary goal is to empower individuals whose rights to justice and opportunity are systematically ignored or denied. The fund has identified community organizing as a highly effective process through which such people may learn to take control of their lives and change those conditions which adversely affect them.

New World Foundation

666 West End Avenue, Suite #1B
New York, NY 10025
(212) 249-1023
(212) 472-05087 fax

Provides start-up funds to programs as well as funds for new projects by established organizations. It seeks to provide a bridge between the initial needs of innovative programs and their achievement of greater support from the public, other foundations or government agencies.

Norman Foundation, Inc.

147 E. 48th Street
New York, NY 10017
(212) 230-9830
(212) 230-9849 fax

Supports projects which encourage a just, open, and demographic political system, a fair distribution of resources, and equality of opportunity.

General Board of Global Ministries

Office of Mission Opportunities
Women's Division
475 Riverside Drive, Rm. 1503
New York, NY 10115

Hope and Wholeness for Children and Youth Fund

Grants will be awarded for work with young people between 8 and 18 years of age in the areas of health concerns, non-formal education, spiritual well being, care-taking concerns, and young people in crisis. These one-time grants will not exceed $6,000. Organizations with either new or existing projects may apply. Available funds are limited.

Call to Prayer and Self-Denial Fund

This one time grant is awarded to a variety of projects which meet the annual criteria to address the specific needs of women, children, and youth. Grants generally do not exceed $25,000. Programmatic proposals are encouraged.

Oxfam America

26 West Street
Boston, MA 02111
(617) 482-1211
1 (800) 776-9326
www.oxfamamerica.org

Oxfam America is committed to creating lasting solutions to global poverty, hunger and social injustice.

Peace Development Fund

44 N. Prospect Street
P.O. Box 1280
Amherst, MA 01004
(413) 256-8306
(413) 563-6882 fax

Provides grants to organizations and projects working to promote global demilitarization, world peace, and non-violent conflict resolutions.

Philadelphia Foundation

1234 Market Street, Suite 1800
Philadelphia, PA 19107
(215) 563-6417
(215) 563-6882 fax

Concentrates on small and developing organizations which are operated by and/or empower minority and low-income people. The funding area is Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Phoenix Fund

100 E. 85th Street
New York, NY 10028
(212) 249-1023
(212) 472-0508 fax

The goal of the Phoenix Fund is to support emerging projects that empower the working poor to address issues such as workers unprotected by labor and environmental standards, immigrants working in sweatshops, job discrimination and poverty wages, workers risking their health in unregulated industries, etc.

Public Welfare Foundation

1200 U Street, NW
Washington, DC 20009-4443
(202) 965-1800
(202) 265-8851 fax

Supports organizations which provide services to disadvantaged populations and works for lasting improvement in meeting basic human needs.

Seventh Generation Fund

P. O. Box 4589
Arcata, CA 95521
(707) 825-7640
(707) 825-7639 fax

Provides an integrated program of grants, technical and management support to Native people in their self-help efforts to maintain and rebuild their communities.

The Sister Fund

116 East 16th Street, 7th Floor
New York, NY 10003
(212) 260-4446
(212) 260-4633 fax

Priority funding is to programs that foster women's economic, social, political, and spiritual empowerment. Funding primarily in New York City, with some national and international funding for advocacy and public education.

Southern Partners Fund

1237 Ralph D. Abernathy Blvd. SW
Atlanta, GA 30310
(404) 758-1983
(404) 758-2880 fax
www.spfund.org

Type of support: advocacy, general operating support, leadership development, other (organizing), technical assistance.

The Tides Foundation

P.O. Box 29903
San Francisco, CA 94129
(415) 561-6400
(415) 561-6401 fax

Provides support to organizations working to promote change in the areas of Social Justice Community Affairs, Economic Public Policy and Enterprise Development, International Affairs, and Environmental and Natural Resources.

Families USA Foundation

1334 G. Street, NW
Washington, DC 20005
(202) 628-3030
(202) 347-2417 fax

Grantmaking is limited to the funding of state-based grass roots coalitions involved in health and long-term health care reform.

Veatch Program

Unitarian Universalist
48 Shelter Rock Rd.
Manhasset, NY 11030
(516) 627-6576
(516) 627-6596 fax

Strives to address broad social, economic and political problems in the United States. Particular emphasis is placed on efforts to promote progressive change in ways which public and private institutions relate to disadvantaged sectors of the population.