

Standing Together Against Injustice

The Confession of 1967 states: “In each time and place there are particular problems and crises through which God calls the church to act” (Book of Confessions, 9.43). One of the major crises in our time is the oppression damaging the lives of African-American men. Recognizing this, the 222nd General Assembly (2016) established Freedom Rising to facilitate the church’s response.

This initiative will pilot in five cities—New York, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Charlotte, and Baltimore. The response will offer support, development and healing in each city and will take shape in response to local needs. Work will be coordinated with programs and agencies within these cities which will in turn ensure community responsiveness and maximize impact.

This year our congregation is committing our 25% of Peace & Global Witness Offering funds to this initiative. The Peace & Global Witness Offering equips God’s people to be compassionate and prophetic peacemakers, and connects communities of peace to learn from each other in shared accompaniment and take action together for the transformation of the world.

Join us in prayer for these efforts and for a world where freedom rises for all.

Please give generously.

For more information visit: specialofferings.pcusa.org/peace-global

Standing Together Against Injustice

The Confession of 1967 states: “In each time and place there are particular problems and crises through which God calls the church to act” (Book of Confessions, 9.43). One of the major crises in our time is the oppression damaging the lives of African-American men. Recognizing this, the 222nd General Assembly (2016) established Freedom Rising to facilitate the church’s response.

This initiative will pilot in five cities—New York, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Charlotte, and Baltimore. The response will offer support, development and healing in each city and will take shape in response to local needs. Work will be coordinated with programs and agencies within these cities which will in turn ensure community responsiveness and maximize impact.

This year our congregation is committing our 25% of Peace & Global Witness Offering funds to this initiative. The Peace & Global Witness Offering equips God’s people to be compassionate and prophetic peacemakers, and connects communities of peace to learn from each other in shared accompaniment and take action together for the transformation of the world.

Join us in prayer for these efforts and for a world where freedom rises for all.

Please give generously.

For more information visit: specialofferings.pcusa.org/peace-global