Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
Presbyterian Mission

The Peace & Global Witness Offering is one of four annual special offerings. The church-wide Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) play an important role in defining what it means to be a connectional church in the twenty-first century, bringing together the diversity of the PC (USA) to focus and take faith-based action on shared concerns. The Offerings offer opportunities for partnership, learning, and witness and profoundly affect the life of the church as a collective witness to Jesus Christ's love for the whole church.

Let Us Pray,
We help to transform lives through our work for peace, with the tools God has given us. Together, in the Spirit of God, we work to break the power of hate, and heal the wounds of violence and division. We join together to pray, and boldly take action for God's peace — at all times in all ways.
Amen.

Princeton was only 13 when he was snatched by soldiers and taken to a military training camp. Two weeks later, he was carrying a gun as a soldier in Nigeria's civil war.

“I was going to fetch water for my mom when they grabbed me, and I didn't see my family again for two and a half years,” he says. The unfortunate reality is that children are forced to become soldiers every day in war-torn places around the world.

Finally, at age 17 — several long and terrible years later — he came home. His wartime experience wounded more than his body; it left him angry and rebellious.

However, the peace of Christ worked in his life as he confessed his Christian faith for the first time. Today he is pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Midlothian, Texas. He serves the whole Church through national initiatives of Intercultural Ministries.

Princeton speaks from the heart when he says using child soldiers is “an evil that we need to exterminate, and we need to call attention to any system that supports this evil.”

Thanks to your gifts to the Peace & Global Witness Offering, we are doing just that.

BLESSED are the Peace makers

Your gifts will help more people experience the freedom and dignity that Christ wants for everyone. Let us offer the peace of Christ at all times and all ways.
