KEYNOTE AND WORKSHOP LEADERS

Dr. Cláudio Carvalhaes

Dr. Carvalhaes was born and raised in São Paulo, Brazil, where he earned his degree from the Independent Presbyterian Theological Seminary. Cláudio Carvalhaes is a much sought after speaker, writer, performer, and consultant. He has published articles in English, Spanish and Portuguese.

Monir H. Michael

Monir H. Michael (known as Monir Habib in the Arab world), is a gospel singer and evangelist. Born to a Christian family in 1959 in Al-Menya, a city south of Cairo, Egypt, Monir started singing in church at a very early age. He recorded his first tape of Christian Arabic music before turning twenty. After almost 35 years in ministry, Monir has 26 albums of Arabic praise songs that are used in all sorts of Christian ministries (TV, radio, churches, and websites) worldwide.

Rev. Nancy Benson-Nicol

Rev. Nancy Benson-Nicol is a teaching elder in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and presently serves the Presbyterian Mission Agency as associate for gender and racial justice. In its July 2004 cover story, Presbyterians Today, featured Nancy in 40 Under 40: Ones to Watch as a “rising star” in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Rev. Laurel Underwood

Rev. Laurel Underwood is a musician turned minister with a passionate love of the diversity that is God’s gift to the world and Christ’s vision for the church. She is joyously grateful to God for the blessings of serving as pastor to the richly diverse congregation of Northwood Presbyterian Church in Silver Springs, Maryland.
